*Midst the lines in a pattern of a life,
girl
crossed unawares a line and greeted with shy boldness and eager bewilderment
A new pattern
strange, compelling
to be experienced . . . explored.*

"The mystical heart of a child is a precious and beautiful thing. It is marred only by wounds of a thoughtless and not too intelligent world . . . it is susceptible to wounds of indifference, thoughtlessness, and neglect . . ."

printed with permission

(Philadelphia: W. B. Saunders Company, 1959)

Dedication

*To the children we've held in our arms while they screamed their anger at the world . . . who laughed with us while dying . . . who drew from us our love and left us yet more to give . . . who in their innocence called us "Mommy" and made our throats catch with longing
To the children yet unknown—ours—we dedicate this Yearbook—with our love.*

TO THE CLASS OF 1970

How oft we gaze into the mystifying night with its realm of stars and find ourselves lost in a world of reminiscence, remembering our past with both its stunning highlights and meandering shadows. However we cannot forget how these were comforting as we gained a sense of satisfaction while profiting habitually by both.

Then suddenly, as a star seems to fall or a cloud changes the face of the Moon, we are brought back to reality with the realization that our life today has been determined by the shades of yesterday, while tomorrow will be determined by the twilight of today.

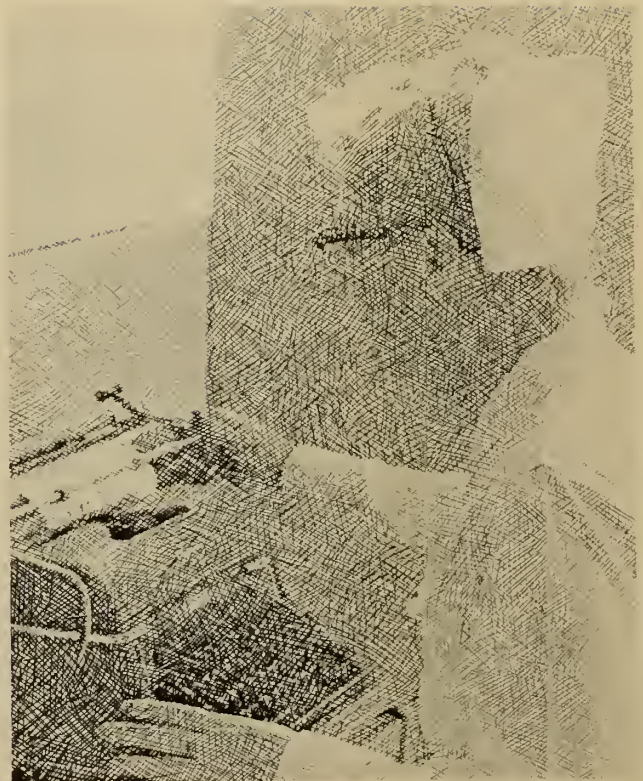

Thus with the knowledge that the light will not always be bright, yet knowing how a little light can thrust its beam far into piercing darkness, may you as the newer graduate on the eve of your Commencement "go forth" as graduates of Hahnemann demonstrating through your actions that the philosophy of your School has given you something that you in turn must give the World. Which ever field of Nursing you select as a career, you must justify what the School has given you by your own services and achievements, and, more deeply, by your own satisfaction in a fuller life.

Now as my nursing career is coming to an end, as I look back there are no regrets for I have had great satisfaction in guiding young people toward maturity. I leave to each one of you my sincere and earnest prayer for your success, happiness and a bright tomorrow.

"Forgetful of his own, who minds another's cares".

Congratulations

Opportunity awaits

Mastery of all does not come in life.

Measure your successes and your failures.

Individuality is your master key

Thirst for knowledge and know you'll never quench it.

Tolerance is one of the highest dimensions of humanness.

Members of the Nursing Profession, Welcome!

Expand your skills in human relations.

Never say never.

Thank you for teaching me so much.

ETHOS

Nursing Service

SEATED: Miss Elinor McCuen, Director of Nursing Service. STANDING: LEFT TO RIGHT: Mrs. Ruth Bressi, Assistant Director of Nursing Service; Miss Elspeth Anderson, Associate Director of Nursing Service.

Take a giant step into the world of tomorrow.

No one knows what the future will bring.
This is only the beginning and it is only in striving

That we will find true happiness.

Reach out.

Grasp all the knowledge you can hold.

Emergency Room

Open a door to exciting experiences.
 Fighting wars with endless might.
 It can be a wild four minute race against death
 or an orderly, systematic procedure toward survival.
 Speed is the key.
 When the system fails . . . . .

12th Broad

"Oh the nerves, the nerves; the mysteries of this machine called man!"

The Chimes
Charles Dickens

Rehabilitation

Pick up the pieces to mend the body,
heal the heart and lift the spirit.
A hard task and the muscle to achieve it.
Preserving all the while, the dignity and respect deserving of a human being.
Can anyone ever put them back together again?

Medical—Surgical

"Med-Surg" proves to be the common denominator of all Student Nurses. This is where the first growing pains are felt . . . where lectures become care plans . . . diseases acquire identity with smiles and seeking hands . . . responsibility becomes yours with the passing of medication keys.

Obstetrics

There is nothing quite so wonderful as ushering in a new life
A helpless baby facing the world,
Reaching out for someone to love, to cling to,
Secure now in his mother's arms.
This miracle of love . . .

Pediatrics

Children . . . initiators of tears and tantrums . . . eyes grown large with fear . . . clinging arms about your neck . . . a toy offered shyly . . . our bid for Tomorrow . . . the keys to Peace.

Intensive Care Unit

8th I.C.U. . . . the challenge of new procedures . . . the opportunity to provide intense total patient care . . . the drama of a quiet struggle for life . . . the reward of a patient's recovery.

8th Broad

8th Broad . . . the beeping of monitors . . . chest tubes . . . pleuravacs . . . the magic of open heart surgery reinforced with the skill of surgeons and the diligence of nurses.

Operating Room

O.R. . . . initiation to tension sharp as a knife . . . relief soft as a gauze fluff . . . back aching with sorrow . . . joy at a negative Path report.

Pulmonary Function

Pulmonary Function... inspiratory time... tidal volume... trachs with Bennett cuffs... the procession following "Max"... the red rubber endo-trach tube... the sweet flow of air... the very breath of life.

Hemodialysis

Hemodialysis... another path through a patient's pain... mechanical... clinical... lifesaving.

*Eastern Pennsylvania Psychiatric Institute
Children's Unit*

Children . . . sightless eyes to the world . . .
lost in their innocence . . . hurt beyond knowing . . . our bid for Tomorrow.

Psychiatry

Psychiatry . . . the edges of another world seared with sorrow and a vague loneliness . . . the opportunity to seek . . . to learn . . . to reach . . . to care . . .

Community Health

Community Health . . . teaching of mothers . . . home visits . . . communication . . . rapport . . . a sharing of experiences . . . an introduction to health for the poor.

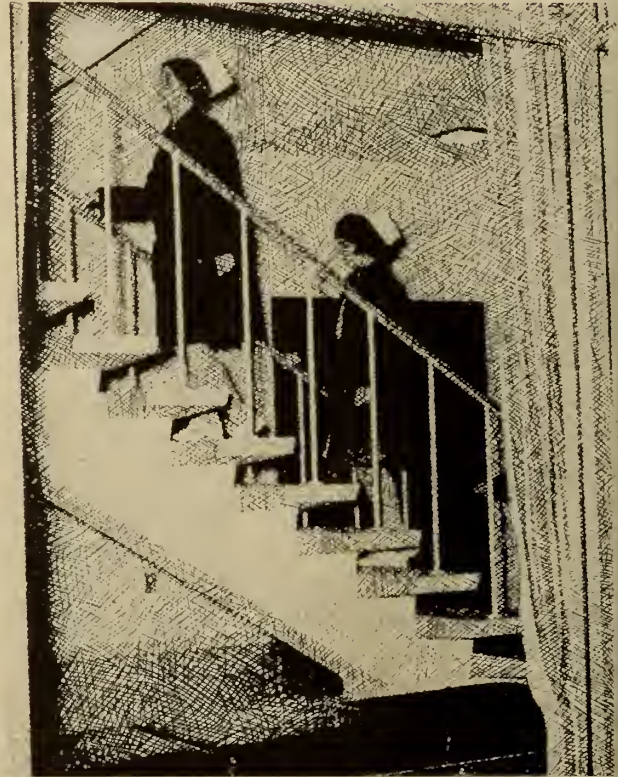

Charts... records... history of an illness... epilogue of a recovery... a welcome smile exchanged between friends... the ability to bend down and help those reaching up.

Somewhere
 midst the lines in a pattern of a life,
 A girl crossed unawares a line . . .
 She is a woman
     and it is written with a line called Nurse . . .

" . . . nothing in life that is worthy is ever too hard to achieve if you have the courage to try it and you have the faith to believe . . ."

From Helen Steiner Rice and Stephen Grellet respectively, we the faculty borrow these words of inspiration wishing to sincerely acknowledge your present happiness and success. We desire too, that as you travel onward through life your achievements will center around the understanding that indeed you shall pass through this world but once, any good, therefore, that you can do, or any kindness that you can show to another human being do it now. Do not deter nor neglect it for you shall not pass this way again.
